

KLOPF

Klara Kevane, Associate Architect

Brief Bio:

Klara is an Associate Architect who has been with Klop Architecture since 2013. She has over 23 years of experience in the field on both coasts. Formerly licensed as an architect in Connecticut, Klara studied history of art and architecture as an undergrad at Brown University and received her Master of Architecture degree from the University of Oregon in 1999.

In addition to her previous professional experience, Klara has led dozens of modern home projects ranging from mid-century modern remodels to new modernist homes while at Klop Architecture. Contractors and clients have appreciated her devotion to her projects and her attention to design and detail.

Klara lives in San Francisco with her husband and their daughter. She enjoys walks with her daughter, novels, short stories, foreign films, travel, and spending time with family and friends in the Bay Area and points beyond.
